

Deputy Commissioner's Message

The official web site of the District Ludhiana <http://ludhiana.gov.in> is a significant step towards revolution of the Information and Communication Technology (ICT). At the same time incorporation of ICT in the governance is making whole of the system more transparent, accountable and speedy.

The District web site is quite useful to the citizen as it is enriched with the valuable information relating to the historical significance & historical mounds, place of interest, elected representatives, functioning of various offices, developments works, Maps, schemes, progress and facilitates exploring other land mark portals of the District.

I congratulate NIC for the pioneering efforts in designing and developing this site. I wish them success in all their projects that are at hand & in their future projects in the interest of effective administration.

I am quite hopeful that the citizen of the District will be furthered while exploring the District web site.

With Best Wishes
Sh. Pradeep Kumar Agarwal, IAS,
Deputy Commissioner, Ludhiana
